NEW YEAR'S DANCE AT CLUB IS SUCCESS

Many Attend Function in Gymnasium

Welcoming Advent of the Infant Year.

With a large attendance present, the Bend Amateur Athletic club celebrated the passing of the old year Tuesday night with a dancing party in the club gymnasium. The affair marked the formal reopening of the club, the building having formerly been temporarily used as an emergency influenza hospital.

An excellent orchestra furnished music during the evening, continuing until more than an hour after the arrival of the infant year was heralded.

MRS. BARNETT AND HER SON

Mrs. George Barnett, wife of the commandant of the U.S. marine corps, was the first American woman to visit the Mame battlefields after the American engagements there. She decorated with flowers many of the graves of American heroes. Mrs. Barnett was summoned abroad suddenly a few weeks ago because of the illness of her husband. This picture was made with her son, Basil Gordon, a lieutenant in the marines.

AT THE MOVIES

Appearing in their latest Paramount picture, "Sandy," Jack Pickford and charming Louise Huff will be highly popular attractions at the Liberty on Friday and Saturday. This is a splendid story of life in Kentucky and every scene is redolent of the aroma of fresh cut blue grass in days reminiscent of those when chivalry ruled. Sandy is a cheerful, brave Scotch lad, who follows the girl of his dreams to her ancestral home, where after a series of thrilling adventures he makes her his bride. How this is accomplished is a matter that will interest the old and young alike, and curiosity is satisfied only by seeing the picture.

A Paramount Mack Sennett comedy with Ben Turpin, Charlie Lynn and Polly Moran, the famous "Sheriff Nell," entitled "She Loved Him Plenty," complete an excellent bill of all light comedy.

Grand.

Jane and Katherine Lee are the pride of the William Fox organization and the brightest little stars in the film firmament. It has always been the deepest regret of the two little prodigies that they were not twins. Jane made her earthy debut abroad just in time to get to America before the war broke out, and Katherine first gazed upon a delighted world in Liverpool, England.

Their mother, Mrs. Irene Lee, was a classic dancer.

Jane underwent a course of training on the speaking stage before breaking into the film world. She had a sparkling part in Lew Fields' "Hands Up," and also appeared with the same comedian in "Old Dutch." The only reason why she remained silent in the latter production was because she wasn't old enough to speak.

Both children have a long record of success in photoplays, playing in support of adult stars, before the general clamor impelled Mr. Fox to give them their own supporting companies and feature them in their own plays. The latter productions include "Two Little Imps," "Trouble Makers," "American Buds" and "We Should Worry!" See them Friday.

AUTO OWNERS MUST SECURE NEW TAGS

Passing of Old Year Renders obsolete License Numbers Carried by Motor Cars.

Automobile owners still using 1918 license tags will be required to change for 1919 without delay, Justice of the Peace J. A. Eastes announced today. "A reasonable length of time to procure the new tags will be allowed," Judge Eastes said, "but every effort must be made to secure new licenses at once."

RECLAMATION OUTLOOK GOOD

geologists are to go into all this.

"From what Mr. Davis says, I believe it is fair to state that if the storage facilities can be developed with a reasonable assurance of satisfaction, the original irrigation plans for Deschutes county will be undertaken. At all events, it is evident that the department intends to launch a very great deal of reclamation work throughout the country, now that reconstruction is the order of the day. Millions will be available and will be appropriated for such enterprises. That certainly is the sentiment of everyone here familiar with the situation. And with such expenditures to be undertaken, it is fair to presume that Oregon will get her share, and that a project which has already received the endorsement of the department, in a large measure, will be one of the first to be worked out.

"With this development of the Deschutes storage resources, Mr. Davis points out, there will be ample water not only to care for any developments which may be undertaken to the north of us, in Jefferson county, but also to insure the maximum development of our own projects and possibilities.

"However, nothing will be, or can be, undertaken or considered definitely until the geological examinations and enlarged surveys are started next spring."

the 1919 legislative session. Denton Burdick, mentioned as a potential candidate for speaker of the House, represented Central Oregon. He is the paternal grandfather of Sen. Ginny Burdick, D-Portland, who currently serves as Senate majority leader.

This edition, finally, touches on many of the issues that have dominated our reprints of the 1918 Bulletin, including the growth of Bend's hospital and its mills, the ravages of the flu, the effects of World War I and, of course, Prohibition.

Our goal with these sections is to replicate the experience of reading the newspaper 100 years ago. Listing historically significant events, as The Bulletin does regularly, is a useful, but limited, exercise. A digest of highlights doesn't tell you which films were playing locally 100 years ago, which products businesses were advertising and who was staying at local hotels. Only reprinting the entire paper can do that.
